

L. R. LEHMAN

1890—Born, Linton, Ind. Parents, Pennsylvania Dutch. Attended public schools and graduated from Linton High School in 1910.

1910-1911—Attended DePue University for one semester and Indiana University for one year.

1912—Managed general store in Elletts, Ind., for father.

1913—Worked for coal company in office and store in Terre Haute, Ind.

1914—Traveling coal salesman, Northern Indiana.

1915—Took charge of stockroom for S. S. Krueger Co., store No. 117, Terre Haute, Ind.

1916—Married. Now have two children; both boys.

1917-1918—Fireman and assistant manager at No. 117.

1919—July 18, was sent to Anderson, Ind., to take charge of store No. 104.

WALTER C. VOGT

1899—Born May 23, at South Redford, Ulster County, N. Y.

1906-1908—Attended country school.

1908-1909—Attended Ulster Academy High School.

1909-1910—Employed by father in lumber business, principal duties around saw mill.

1910-1911—Charge of coal yard and coal office of C. O. Vogt. (father).

1911-1912—Real estate office of C. O. Vogt. Also contracting and building of houses in connection with real estate.

1913—Took general contract for erection of church and Sunday school at South Redford, a building large enough to seat about 200 people. Made several thousand dollars profit on this venture.

1913—Married Miss Mary S. Brown of Kingston, N. Y.

1914-1917—Employed in different capacities by S. S. Krueger Co., at store No. 27, Troy, N. Y.

1914—One child—a fine little girl.

1917-1920—Manager store No. 105, Kingston, N. Y.